It is a voluminous document of 40 type written The Bondsmen Present Their Case Be- pages and was pronounced the most comprethat office. Several important recommends tious accompany the report, which are in line of practical economy, with the idea of saving the county unnecessary expense. The recommendations summarized are as follows: Mor personal attention to duty on the part of beads of offices. Stricter measures in the collection of county taxes. Refusal to pay mileage not traveled in the service of sub-poenas. Townships to be required to repair county bridges yearly. The adoption of a uniform mileage list. Choice, 121.

There is no break in the deadlock; no prophecy of a break in the deadlock. This is a repudlicative summary of the Senatorial situation at noon to-day. It is stated that Senator Martin, speaking for the anti-Quay-lies, E. A. Van Valkenburg for the Business Men's Lesgue, and Chairman Gar Pottsville, Feb. 1.—As announced in this correspondence yesterday, a hearing was held in court some time ago by the bends of A. Freiler on the petitions filed in court some time ago by the bondsmen of Tax Collector Scanlans, praying that executions issued against the bends of Mr. Scanlan be stayed. The hearing on these applications was to have been held in the law offices of George J. Wadlinger, Esj., but the rooms being too small the hearing was held in court room No 3, at 10 o'clock this morn—

As soon as he did so a hundred rifles were leveled at him, and every negro loaded his gun. Every car window held a negro with a cocked rifle, and the negr escaped into the cars. The news spread, and every officer in Texarkana and hundreds of citizens flocked to the scene, County Attorney Horace Vaughan placed himself in communieation with the governor, and as a result the trains were held here for seven hours. The negroes wanted wer kept in a car, with an armed guard outside. The trains were surrounded by trate Texarkanians, who were supplied with dynamite, ready to send the negroes to destruction. The negroe learned of this, and finally agreed to hand over the guilty ones upon identification, but as this was impossible to arrests were made and the trains pro-

AMMUNITION CAR FIRED.

Reported Killing of Three Negro Women Who Were Following Troops, Iuka, Miss., Feb. 1.-At 3 o'clock in the morning a special train bearing the negro troopers of the Tenth cavalry en route to Cuba, passed through here Some unknown persons set fire to the ammunition car, which was almost filled with cartridges and powder. It was entirely destroyed, and the rest of the train was barely saved. Three negro women who were following the troopers are reported to have been killed in the burning car. A dozen of the men were injured. At Walker switch the burning car was discovered by trainmen and sidetracked. The lives of the crew were in danger, as the cartridges were exploding in every direction. By the time the switch was reached the car was a mass of flames, to await trial. Thieving Stranglers in Philadelphia. Philadelphia, Feb. 1.—Mrs. Mary A. Lawler, a widow, aged 71 years, of 713 Tasker street, was found strangled to death yesterday in an upstairs room of her home. The police have no clew to the murderers, but suspect that it was the work of thieves. The woman conducted a small grocery, and lived en-tirely alone, her husband having died she invariably carried in a small bag fastened to her waist underneath her skirt. It is supposed that thieves se-creted themselves upstairs early Monday evening, and as the old woman came to her room preparatory to re-tiring caught her by the throat and choked her to death. Her money bag was missing.
